

Mailing and List Services Available to Child Care Providers

Be Informed

Early childhood professionals should stay informed regarding local, state, and national issues relevant to programs serving children.

Learn About Opportunities

Information posted to the list services includes training events, legislative issues, and information about research and projects in early childhood. All members have the opportunity to submit information they find pertinent to the lists. This is a moderated list, which helps keep members informed while keeping the amount of clutter filling your inbox to a minimum.
